Tug Bristol News says: "Dr. James Bean, who prior to the war practised dentistry at Greeneville, and who recently went to Europe for the purpose of engaging in the Franco-Prussian war, is said to have been killed a few weeks since on Mont Blanc. He was attempting to reach the top and was caught by an avalanche."

A WASHINGTON dispatch says Grant ex-Missouri. At the same time he declared that he felt compelled to remove the officers who supported that ticket. He had already, he said, turned some out of office, and he would remove more. He still clings to the proscriptionists.

A CONTEMPORARY informs the public that the present administration at Washington in trying to "make believe" that it is really an economical one, while the fact is that in one year it has cost the country over fifty millions more than the whole last five years of the Democratic administration of the national government. Is not a Radical administration, therefore, an expensive luxury?

On the 18th day of June last, Mr. Dawes, a leading member of Congress from Massachusetts, in the course of a speech in that body, said: "I have a right to complain of the other end of the avenue, that, with all its professions of economy and reduction of unnecessary force in the departments, with all the heralding by telegraph or otherwise of its purpose of reduction, there is not one of these departments that does not estimate to-day in the book I have before me, for an increase of expenditure, over the old story: when the Radical party is in power, promises of retrenchment, feit it his duty, knowing as he did, the economy and reform, are followed by sentiments of his constituency, to oppose corruption, wastefulness and reckless ex- its passage. * * This bill proposes Gov. MAYNARD AND BUTLER ON NE-GRO SUFFRAGE. Horace Maynard was a candidate for Congress in the Knoxville district in 1865, and in a circular he addressed to the voters of the district, he said :

We propose to show that he advocated the disfranchisement forever of negroes in this State, to deprive them of the right to hold office, and to declare them incompetent to serve on juries or give evidence against a white man. He made this bold move after it had become a fixed fact January, 1865, to confer the right of our readers to the advertisement of Globe that slavery had perished forever in this suffrage upon the negroes. It is fair to Flower Syrup, in another column. This celebrated country. Mr. Butler was a member of the Convention, or "primary meeting," as he called it, which met in this city in January, 1865, and proposed the amendment to our State Constitution by which slavery was abolished in Tennessee. On Thursday, the 12th of January, 1865, while the report of the Business Committee was under discussion, Mr. Butler said : "One proposition in the report is to the effect that all persons who are competent upon our State Constitution an amendwitnesses in a court of justice shall be entitled to vote. JAMISON, Cashier. junit sply WHEREAS, BY VIRTUE OF AN ACT OF the General Assembly of Tennesses, passed June 18, 1870, entitled "An Act to dispose of the Old Lunsilic Asylem Grounds, and to provide for the erection of a Governor's Mansion," the Buard of Trustees of the Tennesses Hospital for the Insane were appointed to take charge of the pro-perty, and to lay off a site of two acres for the

Governor's Mansion,

And divide the remainder into Building Lots, and expose the same to sale upon terms to subserve the objects provided for in the act: therefore, the undersigned, the acting Board of Trustees, under the power and authority vested, will offer at pub-lic sale to the highest bidder

Six Acres and Forty-n ne Poles Of the said property, on Thursday, October 27, 1870,

At 10 e'clock a. m. on the premises.

The property is bounded by Division and Overton streets and the Middle Frankin Pike. It lies beautifully on a commanding eminence overlooking a great portion of the city, and will be so laid off that its streets will connect with those leading to Broad street and the great thoroughfares. It is now being fevalled and graded and adapted for building state. The creation of the Governor's is now being levisled and graded and anaposed for building sites. The erection of the Governor's Mansion at that point, together with its nearness to the city and natural eligibility, will make this one of the most pleasant and attractive suburbs, and renders this sale one offering unusual in-ducements to those destring building sites. Plans of the lots are to be found at the office of Dr. T. A. Atchieve, and the puelle are invited to Dr. T. A. Aichian, and the puglic are invited to call and inspect them.
